

Day 5/6

1. Find and copy two adjectives that describes the valley.
2. What is unusual about the behaviour of the cows in the second paragraph?
3. Why is one field described as green and the other as gold?
4. Why does Harriet run out to the Wheatfield?
5. "As she stood there now, in the stillness, with no sound but distant birdsong, a hare suddenly came out into the corn circle..." How might Harriet be feeling at this particular moment? Explain your answer.
6. Why did the hare 'turn its head a little sideways?'
7. Why was Harriet amazed and surprised when they Hare said, loudly and clearly, 'Good morning'.
8. Read the text in the table below. Find evidence in the text to support each statement.

It is a beautiful place where Harriet lives.
The hare isn't scared of Harriet.

9. Number the following events from 1 to 4 to show the order that they happen.

The farmhouse and its building were tucked into the side of a gentle hill.
For a moment the hare stayed where it was, watching her.
The second field was of wheat.
Harriet walked into the middle of the circle.

10. Which of the following would be the most suitable summary of the whole text?
- A. Harriet liked playing outside.
 - B. Harriet meets a talking hare.
 - C. Cows are scared of hares.
11. What might happen next after the hare says 'Good morning' loudly and clearly?