Axel finished painting the walls in all the caves.

He got his brush and paints and headed back home.

Mum was pleased to see him.

"Look at Dad's invention," she said.

Axel walked in the cave. "Ouch!" he yelled.

He had stepped on Tuft's rock. Then he saw Dad's invention.

It was made of stone. It was round with a hole in the middle.

"Wow!" said Axel. "What is it?"

"It's a firestone," said Dad. "You put logs in the hole in the middle."

"It's a firestone," said Dad. "You put logs in the hole in the middle."

English Activity

Focus: Use the suffixes 'er' and 'est' when added to adjectives.

Everybody wanted a raft like Axel's raft. It made catching fish much easier.

Soon Axel and Dad were making rafts for everyone in Blackrock.

Some people wanted bigger rafts. Some people wanted smaller rafts.

Some wanted longer rafts. Some wanted shorter rafts.

They were kept busy all day. They were the busiest cavemen in Blackrock.

They were paid with lots of shells. They were the richest cavemen in Blackrock.

Dad was happy for Axel. Axel's invention was the best.

But Dad was also a bit sad. Nobody was interested in his firestone.

I can use the suffixes 'er' and 'est' when added to adjectives.

Add 'er' to an adjective to compare two things. Add 'est' to an adjective to compare three or more things.

Add 'er' or 'est' to the end of the adjectives. Then use the correct word in the sentences below.

taller.....	short.....	long.....	small.....	sharp.....
tallest.....	short.....	long.....	small.....	sharp.....

1 This raft is than this raft.

This oar is than this oar.

2 This tree is than this tree.

This fish is than this fish.

3 This is the spear.

This is the oar.

4 This is the tree.

This is the fish.

Write sentences using 'er' and 'est' added to adjectives.
