Read through the diary entries that you have been given and label any key features. Create a tool kit and list the features of a diary entry. Think about the diary entry you wrote as Samuel Pepys during the Great Fire of London.

The Diary of Samuel Pepys

Dear Diary,

Sunday 2nd September 1666

My maid, Jane, called up to me at 3 o'clock in the morning to tell me there was a great fire burning in the City of London. It was far away so I went back to sleep thinking nothing of it. When I got up this morning, I saw the fire out of my window in the distance. Jane came to tell me the fire began in a bakery on Pudding Lane and 300 houses had been burned down. I went to see the Lord Mayor to see what was being done about the fire. He was very worried and then I began to panic. The fire is spreading and I am afraid my property will be burned to the ground!

Dear Diary,

Monday 3rd September 1666

The fire is still spreading and the flames are rising! I am terrified because it is getting closer to my house! Today, I hid all my money in the cellar. I hope it is hidden deep enough so that it will be safe from the fire or from anyone who tries to steal it.

Dear Diary,

Tuesday 4th September 1666

The terrible fire continues! At 4 o'clock this morning, I loaded up a cart with all my valuables and took them to the house of my friend, Sir Rider, in Bethnal Green. I was in such a hurry I didn't dress. I just wore my nightgown. On the way, I saw many people running away from the fire. They all looked petrified. I do hope this fire doesn't get any worse. If it does, I shall dig a deep pit in the garden and bury my most treasured possessions (bottles of wine and a parmesan cheese) to keep them safe.

MARCH

Mom's always saying that friends will come and go but family is forever. Well, if that's true, I could be in for a rough ride.

I mean, I love my family and all, but I'm just not sure we were meant to LIVE together. Maybe it'll be better later on when we're all in different houses and only see each other on holidays, but right now things are just a little dicey.

I'm surprised Mom's always pushing the "family" message, since she and her sisters don't really get along. Maybe she thinks if she keeps repeating it to me and my brothers, then we'll come out different. But if I was her, I wouldn't hold my breath.

I think Mom is just trying to make me feel better about my situation with Rowley anyway. Rowley's been my best friend ever since he moved into my neighborhood, but things have really changed between us recently.

1: Monday

OKAY, OKAY. So hang me. I killed the bird. For pity's sake, I'm a cat. It's practically my job to go creeping round the garden after sweet little eensy-weensy birdy-pies that can hardly fly from one hedge to another. So what am I supposed to do when one of the poor feathery little flutterballs just about throws itself into my mouth? I mean, it practically landed on my paws. It could have hurt me.

Okay, okay. So I biffed it. Is that any reason for Ellie to cry in my fur so hard I almost drown, and squeeze me so hard I almost choke?

"Oh, Tuffy!" she says, all sniffles and red eyes and piles of wet tissues. "Oh, Tuffy. How could you do that?"

How could I do that? I'm a cat. How did I know there was going to be such a giant great fuss, with Ellie's mother rushing off to fetch sheets of old

Tuesday 23rd June – Reading

Listen to the story 'The Gruffalo'. Write down everything you can remember about the story. Think carefully about the characters, the setting and how it is written. E.g. Does it rhyme?
